

First Aid for Heat Stroke

Take the patient to a cool place, away from the sun

Apply a cloth wet with cold water to the neck, head and shoulders

Remove unnecessary clothes and give cold water to the patient

Give water to the patient only when his health improves